1. Register on the official website of MoRTH to receive a Unique Acknowledgement Number (UAN).
2. Make the non-refundable registration fee payment as well as the reserve price for the fancy number you intend to bid on.
3. Choose your preferred registration number to block it and secure your position in the auction.
4. The e-auction registration window will be open for three days, followed by two days of bidding.
5. Place your bids on the selected number, ensuring multiples of Rs.10,000 for categories 1 to 4 and multiples of Rs.1,000 for category 5.
6. The successful bidder will be notified via SMS and email.
7. Within five days of the declaration, make the remaining balance payment online.
8. After completing the online deposit, the allotment letter will be generated, which remains valid for 90 days for vehicle registration purposes.

The fees for fancy number plates vary depending on the category of the number. The categories range from 1 to 5, with Category 1 being the most expensive and Category 5 being the least expensive. The fees for each category are as follows:

- Category 1: Rs. 5 lakhs
- Category 2: Rs. 3 lakhs
- Category 3: Rs. 2 lakhs
- Category 4: Rs. 1 lakh
- Category 5: Rs. 5,000

Please note that the booking amount may not be the final amount you need to pay for a fancy number. The final amount is determined after the bidding process. In case you lose the bidding, the booking amount will be refunded to you.

To check the prices and availability of the VIP number plate online, follow these steps:

1. Access the official website of the Ministry of Road Transport and Highways.
2. In the lower right-hand corner of the webpage, click on the 'Choice Number' option.
3. This will redirect you to a new page where you will be required to select your state and the appropriate Regional Transport Office (RTO) name.
4. After choosing the state and RTO, a list of available fancy car numbers will be displayed for you to browse through.
5. The displayed list will provide information such as the registration number, reserve price, and category of each number.
6. To refine your search, you have the option to filter the list based on category, registration number, or reserve price.
